Joel,

Can you refer me to the person who is in charge of putting together the official calendar for Asian Pacific Heritage Month?

I am involved with two events, as follows:

Little Tokyo Mini Open

Where: Noguchi Plaza, Japanese American Cultural and Community Center (JACCC), 244 S. San Pedro St.

What: A pop-up nine-hole miniature golf course presented by the Little Tokyo Business Association. Funded with a grant from Dr. Pepper/Snapple, the attraction is part of the 2018 Kaboom! Play Everywhere Challenge to convert urban open space into a play area for children. Each hole is designed by local artists using recyclable materials.

When: April 21-22, April 28-29, 11 a.m.-4 p.m. The event will launch at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 21 with a media event featuring City Councilmember Jose Huizar and State Assemblymember Miguel Santiago.

Who: Participation is free for children up to 12 years of age, $3/person for anyone age 13 or older.

Hip Hop in Asian Pacific America

What: An exhibition entitled "Don't Believe the Hype" explores the trajectory of Hip Hop across the API cultures--Korean, Filipino, Japanese, Chinese from music to dance crews to graffiti to rap to murals and more. Presented by the Friends of the Chinese American Museum and El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument.

Where: Chinese American Museum, 425 N. Los Angeles St.

Who: This multi-media exhibition and street fair will draw upon the talents of musicians, fashion designers, visual artists, fashion designers, dancers, and others to illustrate how Asian Americans have influenced hip hop culture.

When: The exhibition is scheduled to open May 18 and associated events will be held throughout the months of May and June.

Thank you in advance for your help. Please let me know if you have questions or require additional information.
